

Melbourne independent record label, Northtone Records, signs Dutch singer- songwriter, Jeanne.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

On the 15th of January 2016 Northtone Records signed Jeanne Rouwendaal a Dutch singer-songwriter from The Netherlands and begun working on Jeanne's forthcoming EP to be recorded in Melbourne.

Jeanne has spent the last few months touring The Netherlands with Popronde, a travelling festival, where she played 33 shows in 20 different cities throughout the country. Prior to that Jeanne won the public prize in the acclaimed music competition, De Grote Prijs van Nederland in 2014.

"I am really looking forward to working with Northtone Records and producer Robert John Sedky" Jeanne comments, "I felt that Robert and I, and drummer Carlo Parisi and bass player Tom Fraser, had a very strong connection from the start. The entire team is so amazing to work with. Everyone is so passionate, and so kind. We are not only creating music, we are creating friendships."

Jeanne will also be documenting her first Australian trip through a series of YouTube video diaries. Follow the series now on Facebook and Youtube and see behind the scenes footage of the life of an artist on the road.
